ROOM WITH A VIEW

Situated in a little extension area just off a large kitchen, this simple dark oak bespoke breakfast table and chairs are perfectly placed to sit and enjoy this glorious view across the Carrick Roads near Mylor in South Cornwall.

This is a wonderful spot to take breakfast or enjoy a light lunch with friends. 'Working here I think would be impossible, as it would be too hard to concentrate on anything other than the expansive view and passing yachts in front of you,' says interior designer Frances Healy.

The large glass windows and skylight allow light to flood in and the view to be enjoyed from all angles. On warm summer days the French doors bifold out onto the patio, allowing a seamless transition from inside to out, allowing you to wonder out with a cup of coffee and breathe in gallons of fresh air.

On dark, colder nights the sumptuous handmade curtains can be drawn to create a warm and cosy corner, where a simple supper can be enjoyed, knowing that the view will open up to you again in the morning. franceshealyinteriors.co.uk
